

COVID-19

a NWNM member initiative

Re: #i-volunteer-help-covid

This SLACK channel has been set up as a resource for those among our membership who need to self-quarantine and stay home, but may need assistance in obtaining groceries, medicines, or other necessities.

It also includes:

- List of businesses who will deliver and/or allow you to pick up food orders
- Important information re: meals being made available for all eligible seniors

For more information on how to find a volunteer and learn more about the logistics, please visit the NastyWomenNM SLACK channel above or email us referencing volunteer-help-covid in the subject line.

The intent of this initiative is to provide volunteer helpers and also members who may need information regarding businesses that will allow you to pick up and/or will deliver your groceries.

If you can volunteer to help with this effort, you may Direct Message Paula or Terry on SLACK, or you can send an email to nastywomennm@gmail.com
